

Todd Womack

Press Sheet

by Shirley Gibb

"Todd Womack does fast-paced, off-the-wall jokes, often in character. His material is original, well observed and very funny."

-The Scotsman

by Steve Murdoch

"Ending the show was the aforementioned Womack. Tall, bald, and looking like a hyperactive Michael Stipe, Todd grabs the microphone and steamrollers the audience into peals of laughter. His ear for accents is superb and his delivery and timing are impeccable. This is one show that will have you laughing from start to finish and is probably one of the best comedy shows at the Fringe..."
